CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ (CFP®) Professional

Preparatory studies include an advanced college-level course of study addressing the financial planning subject areas that CFP Board's studies have determined as necessary for the competent and professional delivery of financial planning services, and the attainment of a Bachelor's Degree from a regionally accredited college or university. CFP Board's financial planning subject areas include insurance planning and risk management, employee benefits planning, investment planning, income tax planning, retirement planning, and estate planning. Each course is estimated to require approximately 160 to 220 hours of study. After completion, candidate must pass a comprehensive Certification exam administered over 10 hours and complete at least three years of full-time financial planning -related experience before becoming certified. Once certified, individuals must complete 30 hours of continuing education every two years, including two hours on the Code of Ethics and other parts of the Standards of Profession Conduct.

Accredited Investment Fiduciary ("AIF")

The AIF® designation is issued by the Center for Fiduciary Studies. To earn the designation, each AIF® candidate must complete either a web-based or capstone program, pass a final certification exam, and complete a minimum of 6 hours of continuing education per year. AIF® designees must also sign and agree to abide by a code of ethics. More information regarding the AIF® is available at <https://www.fi360.com/>.

Chartered Retirement Planning CounselorSM

The CRPC® designation is a retirement planning credential awarded by the College for Financial Planning® to individuals who meet its educational, examination and ethical requirements. To earn a CRPC® designation, candidates are required to have completed the CRPC® Designation Program, a self-taught educational program focused on various pre- and post- retirement needs of individuals. Recipients are further required to have successfully passed a multiple-choice examination addressing a range of retirement related matters, such as estate planning and asset management. On an ongoing basis, CRPC® designees are also required to affirm their adherence to the applicable Code of Ethics and complete at least 16 hours of continuing education every two years. More information about the CRPC is available at <https://www.cffp.edu/>.

Chartered Life Underwriter

The CLU designation is conferred by The American College. To earn the credential, each CLU candidate must take a proctored exam for each course of study, have 3 years of full-time business experience within the five years preceding the awarding of the designation, and complete a minimum of 30 hours of continuing education every two years. More information regarding the CLU can be found at <http://www.cluhigheststandard.com/>.
